U. S. Discloses Long List of Tariff Slashes

By SPENCER DAVIS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States announced today a long list of reciprocal tariff cuts negotiated with 21 other countries at Geneva and said "free world trade in general will be better off" as a result.

Four months of give-and-take bargaining among the 22 nations lowered tariff barriers on trade items aggregating more than 2½ billion dollars a year among the nations concerned.

The United States gave direct tariff cuts on concessions on foreign imports valued at 667 million dollars in 1954. Other indirect cuts brought this total to 811 million dollars, the State Department said in an announcement on behalf of nine U.S. agencies.

In return, the United States obtained direct duty concessions on American exports valued at 40 million dollars in 1954. Indirect benefits were not estimated.

None of the U.S. tariff reductions apply to imports from Soviet bloc countries, but they do apply to all free world nations whether or not they participated in the Geneva meeting.

There was no estimate of the amount of tariff revenue that would be lost.

The first phase of U.S. reductions are due to go into effect June 30. The U.S. trade agreements team was authorized to cut tariffs up to 15 per cent of their level on Jan. 1, 1955, with the reductions divided equally over the next three years. Most cuts by other countries are to be made effective all at once.

CC Sponsors Community Contest

Hope Chamber of Commerce has entered the seventh annual Community Accomplishment contest co-sponsored by the Arkansas Economic Council-State Chamber of Commerce, the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission and the Arkansas Power and Light Company.

Hope will compete with other towns ranging in population from 4,000 to 20,000. Cash awards offered in this category are: First prize $700; second prize $400; third prize $250; fourth prize $150; fifth prize $100.

Objectives of the state-wide program are to promote a higher standard of living with the common denominator of planning and promoting the community's economy, to continually improve social facilities and to consistently develop its physical assets.

The contest will end next February 28, 1957, when a consolidated report of all progress in community development will be compiled by the local chamber and submitted to contest judges.

The contest covers many phases of community development and organization, including modernization of buildings, business and industrial expansion, agricultural development and improvement, health sanitation, religion and education, recreational facilities and improvements and tourist promotion, teamwork and effort.

Tourist promotion activities by the local chamber will be launched June 14 when the first out-of-state tourists will be stopped, dined and taken on a tour of the city. By that time the chamber expects to have a consolidated map showing historical points of interest in south-west Arkansas, as well as recreational spots that will attract and detain tourists.

Markets Offer Meat Specials

By The Associated Press

Meats on special weekend sale vary widely across the nation, this week but chickens will be found on almost all food store bargain lists.

Faced with rising costs for beef on wholesale markets and relatively high costs for lamb and pork, retailers have looked hard for other featured items. One chain in New York offers lobsters, another includes frankfurters and here and there across the country turkeys are featured.

Picnic hams and chuck roasts will be found fairly often by housewives shopping for specials.

Beef, which had a substantial rise on the wholesale market a week ago, is generally selling at slightly higher retail prices this week.

Petitions Out for Poll Tax Repeal

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The first initiative petitions to be filed for the November general election were submitted to Secretary of State C. G. Hall yesterday by backers of a proposed constitutional amendment to abolish the poll tax as a requirement for voting.

The petitions were presented by former Gov. Sid McMath and Henry Woods, his law partner, who said the forms contained 35-120 signatures, more than the total required for a place on the ballot.

A number of other proposed amendments, acts and resolutions are expected before the July 6 deadline.

Bar Group Hears Talk on Interposition

HOT SPRINGS (AP) — A Vanderbilt law professor today said that the U.S. Supreme Court has "consistently invalidated" the premises on which the theory of interposition is based.

However, Paul H. Sanders told Arkansas Bar Association members that an "essential tenet of the interposition doctrine is to challenge the right of the court to make at final decision with regard to those matters."

Sanders said that the term interposition "is being used loosely today to cover any protest."

He said that interposition assumes that the state has more authority and power and "questions the exercise of federal power within the boundaries of a state." Several Southern states have taken steps toward applying the interposition doctrine as a means of combating the U.S. Supreme Court decision outlawing public school segregation of Negroes and whites.

Sanders said that the U.S. Supreme Court "in effect" has ruled that state interposition has no effect. However, he said he said that final authority does not lie with the court.

Sanders was a luncheon speaker at the association opened its 58th annual convention.

Graduation in Tabernacle Bible School

The Commencement for the Vacation Bible School of the Gospel Tabernacle will be held Friday at 7:30 p. m. The program will consist of a presentation by the Beginner Primary, Junior, and Intermediate departments.

After the service, parents and friends will be given opportunity to go to the departments for the purpose of viewing the handwork and classrooms.

The following workers have made up the faculty and staff: Beginner Dept. Superintendents: Mrs. W. C. Land, Mrs. S. Z. Barwick, Mrs. Elmer Clark, Mrs. Archie Cook, Mrs. Odessa Stewart, Mrs. Joe Morton, Mrs. Myrtle Madlock, Mrs. C. S. Cook, Viva Mae Powell.

Primary Dept. Superintendents: Mrs. Wesley Barton, Mrs. Curtis Yates, Jimmie Don Wilson, Mrs. Calvin Webb, Frankie Webb, Mrs. J. O. Taylor, Kaye Downing.

Junior Dept. Superintendents: Mrs. Guy Downing, Mrs. T. C. Cranford, Mrs. Cecil Sprague, Albert Hargis.

Intermediate Dept. Superintendents: Mrs. George Hicks, Mrs. James Puryear, Mr. J. R. Steadman, Mrs. Henry O'Steen, June Evans, Mrs. Eldon Steadman, Bonnie Tullis.

Mrs. Buck Rogers was in charge of refreshments and Gerald Whitely was the bus driver.

The Pastor, W. C. Land, extends a welcome to the public to attend the Commencement exercises.

Laws of Nations Over the World Vary Sharply, Report by UN Social Council Shows

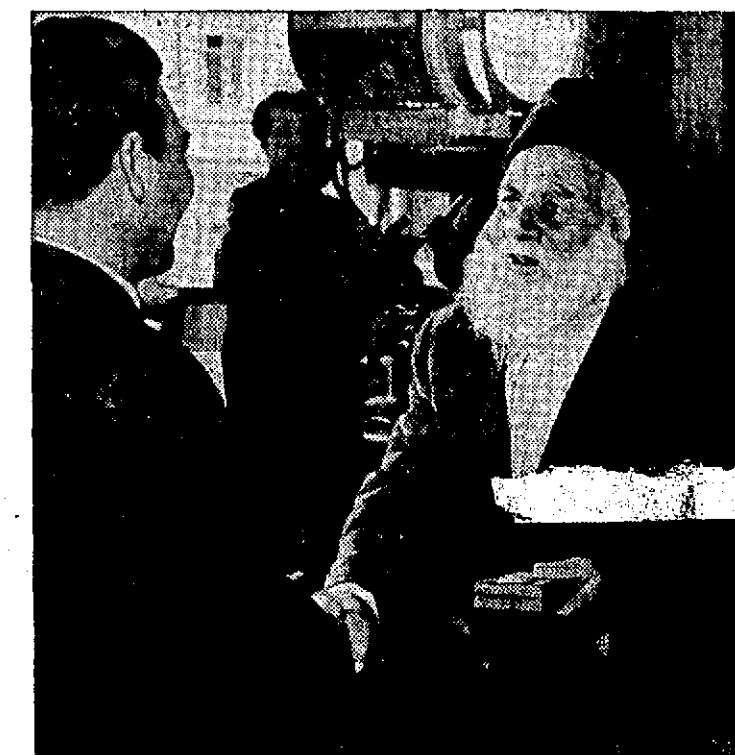

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — In Pakistan, a Moslem may have four wives and a Hindu any number. But in Tennessee a man can get 21 years in prison for having only two.

So says a lately published U. N. survey of marriage and divorce laws in 24 countries. Such laws were studied because of their effect on population, a concern of the U. N. Economic and Social Council. They show great diversity.

In Sweden, under ordinary circumstances, no man may marry under 21 years old nor woman under 18. In Argentina, Honduras, Panama and Northern Ireland, on the other hand, a boy may marry at 14 and a girl at 12, giving

Red Secret Police Reportedly Have Seized 100 Persons in Joe Stalin's Home Republic

By FRANZ CYRUS

VINNA, Austria (UP) — Soviet secret police seized more than 100 persons in Josef Stalin's home republic of Georgia last week, Western Diplomatic sources said today. The seizures were made when posters appeared in the capital city of Tiflis proclaiming an "independent" Georgian republic.

The sources said that on the morning of May 26 factories, plants and official buildings of the city were plastered with posters reading: "Long live the independent Georgian republic." May 26 was the 37th anniversary of the proclamation of Georgia's independence in 1919.

The reports reaching Vienna said more than 100 workers were seized by the secret police in a search for members of an underground organization believed to have distributed the posters.

An additional, but undetermined, number were picked up in a second police raid the next day, the reports said.

The sources said the May 26 demonstration for Georgia's independence was the first hard in the West in 14 years. Similar independence demonstrations were reported from Tiflis and other Georgian towns when the German During World War II.

Arkansas Broiler Production Up

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas broiler production during the week which ended June 2 showed a 5 per cent gain over the previous week.

The crop reporting service said 2,431,000 broiler chicks were started.

Eggs for broiler chicks totaled 2,855,000, a rise of 2 per cent over the previous week.

No Danger of Corruption, Says FHA

WASHINGTON (AP) — Housing Administrator Albert M. Cole says he sees "no substantial danger" of a repetition of the kind of housing irregularities aired in 1954.

A "full check" of current operations of the Federal Housing Authority, Cole said in a statement, "discloses no evidence of windfalls, fraud or corruption." Cole reported on his survey three weeks after Sen. Byrd (D-Va) wrote President Eisenhower that "the elements which breed housing scandals still persist."

Byrd based his statement on checks by the General Accounting Office which he said showed "irregularities and inefficiencies" in FHA offices in New York City, Kansas City and Cleveland, and in 22 slum clearance projects in 15 cities.

Cole said the GAO recommendations concerning the three FHA offices dealt largely with need for increased supervision, and added FHA is seeking "to bring about necessary improvements" of the kind suggested.

The slum clearance projects are the direct responsibility of local housing authorities, and Cole said the problem there involves "some fairly basic questions of federal-local relationships." Cole said the GAO suggested more supervisory and advisory services to the local groups.

The 1954 housing investigation developed evidence of cases in which some building promoters obtained FHA loan commitments larger than the actual cost of their projects, and pocketed the difference.

Beach Closed to Negroes in Florida

DELRAY BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The owner of a mile-long section of private beach five miles north of this resort city said he will post the property against Negro bathers.

Phil Phillips, owner of a sea food restaurant, said Negroes have been using the beach without permission on weekends for some time.

He said last night he was posting the property "because it's come to the point that I can't even get on my own beach."

North of Phillips' beach is a 150-foot section bought by the city for use by Negroes but Negro leaders say it is unacceptable.

The City Commission voted Tuesday to ask the Legislature to exclude the Negro district from Delray Beach city limits in the wake of racial tension that has lasted a month. About 2,000 Negroes now live here.

Tito Reaffirms Friendship With United States

By STANLEY JOHNSON

MOSCOW (AP) — President Tito says his visit to Russia will not affect Yugoslavia's friendly relations with the United States.

Talking with reporters at a Kremlin reception last night, the Yugoslav chief brushed aside as "not important" Sen. McCarthy's charge to cut off U.S. aid to Yugoslavia because of its ties to Moscow.

"Our relations with the United States will not suffer," Tito said, when asked about the McCarthy resolution. "Our friendship with the United States will continue as before our trip here."

When an American remarked that he should journey to Washington to make sure there was no misunderstanding of his intentions, Tito replied: "If I am invited, why not? But first I must be invited."

Some 1,000 diplomats and Soviet leaders, including Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev and Premier Bulganin, attended the gala reception in the Kremlin's gold and marble St. George's Hall.

During the exchange of toasts, Tito stressed Yugoslavia's independent foreign policy.

"We have had no difficulty finding a common point of view in the likes we have held so far," Tito told the Soviet leaders, "especially on the sovereignty and independence of our foreign policy."

"We have found a full understanding of Yugoslavia's position and I am convinced our coming here will play a great role in the cause of peace in general."

"We came to Moscow because it is a principle of our policy to cooperate with all countries."

Tito said Yugoslavia's "outset from the Moscow-dominated Communist bloc" is a principle of our policy to cooperate with all countries. Tito said Yugoslavia's "outset from the Moscow-dominated Communist bloc" is a principle of our policy to cooperate with all countries.

Wet Weather Is Seen in Wide Area

By The Associated Press

Wet and possibly stormy weather was in prospect for wide areas in the central part of the country today. But a pleasant early June day was forecast for most other sections.

Thunderstorms rumbled across the northern and central plains last night and early today had advanced into the upper Great Lakes region and western Illinois.

The stormiest weather was in the upper and middle Mississippi Valley, where cool Pacific air collided with warm, humid air from the Gulf.

Tornado winds yesterday whipped areas in Kansas and thunderstorms, with strong winds, extended over sections of Nebraska northeastward into South Dakota and Minnesota.

Cooler air advancing eastward across the Northern Plains today dropped temperatures around 15 degrees in the Dakotas. In contrast, readings were some 15 degrees higher in parts of the Great Lakes region.

Little temperature change was reported in most other parts of the country.

DAV to Open Conference

JONESBORO, Mo. — The annual convention of the Arkansas Disabled American Veterans is scheduled to open here tomorrow with 300 expected to attend.

Speakers include Vivian D. Corbly, national adjutant of the DAV, Gov. Orval Faubus and State Sen. Guy Jones. The convention will end Sunday.

475,000 Army Reservists to Be Discharged

WASHINGTON, (UP) — The Army announced plans today to transfer 500,000 reservists from the ready to the standby reserve freeing them from any call to active duty except by act of Congress.

An additional 475,000 reservists will be discharged altogether. They are men who served prior to June, 1951, mostly Korean war veterans, whose tour reservists would soon end anyway.

The Army announced the shake-up in its reserves as a move to "build up a truly ready reserve force" of 1,692,000 reservists and National Guardsmen available for immediate call in war or other emergency. Ready reserves can be called to active duty by presidential order whereas standby reservists are liable only if Congress declares war or a national emergency.

An Army spokesman said most of the men affected by the Army plan, which will be carried out during the year starting July 1, have not been actively participating in reserve units. Penalties for failure to participate have been effect only since last year's reserve act was passed and do not apply to those already who were in the reserves.

The Army said the aim of the new screening program is to keep in ready reserve units men who are physically fit, have necessary military qualifications and will be available for immediate service in emergency. The screening process will remove from the ready reserve men who would be needed vitally in industry, research and activities necessary to national health and safety.

The Army estimated that it now has 1,885,000 in its ready reserve forces, not counting 407,000 in the Army National Guard. However, the standby reserve now has only 8,500.

The Army said men who served in Korea while the fighting was going on will be eligible to transfer from the ready to the standby reserve when the shake-up "takes place." Priority for transfers will be based on combat service and amount of obligation to serve in ready reserve still outstanding. Drafted men are supposed to follow their two years active duty with six years reserve service. The time will be cut short for some men under the screening program.

No men volunteering for reserve service will be dropped, the Army said.

The Army said the new screening process will be automatic and persons being transferred will be notified in due course.

Hope on Traffic Honor List

LITTLE ROCK, (UP) — Thirteen Arkansas cities have been noted for going through 1955 without a traffic fatality. The 13 are among 802 towns of 5,000 to 10,000 population which earned places on the National Safety Council's traffic honor roll.

Given the recognition were Arkansas, Benton, Forrest City, Harrison, Hope, Malvern, Paragould, Rogers, Searcy, Springdale, Stuttgart, Van Buren and West Helena.

Leggett Jury Completion Likely Today

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Only one more man was needed to complete the jury to try Elmer Earl Leggett for murder as court opened today.

Four jurors were accepted yesterday for trial of the 19-year-old former convict in the strangulation slaying of Joe King, 14, near Jacquetville, on Dec. 23.

That brought to 11 the jurors picked since the first prospects were emceed Monday.

More than 200 prospective jurors had been passed on—and all but the 11 rejected—through yesterday.

Circuit Judge William J. Kirby said another 200 or more would be called today if necessary to get the 12th juror.

John W. Bailey, the court-appointed defense attorney, made two new motions yesterday to have the trial transferred to another county on ground that an unprejudiced jury couldn't be obtained in Pulaski County.

Kirby overruled both motions. He had rejected a similar motion Tuesday.

The state, which says King was slain and his body left in a briar patch after he resisted unnatural sex advances, is seeking the death penalty against Leggett.

Most of the prospective jurors who have been excused were turned down because they said they had definite opinions about the case and couldn't try it with an open mind.

Only a few were rejected because they objected to the death penalty.

UN to Move Truce Teams Regardless

By JIM CARV
PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP) — The U. N. Command served notice on the Communists today that they are going ahead with plans to move the neutral truce inspection teams out of South Korea.

U.S. Maj. Gen. Robert G. Gard, senior Allied member of the Joint U.N.-Communist armistice commission, announced the decision after both sides deadlocked on a compromise proposal from the four-nation Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission.

The neutral commission—staffed by Sweden, Switzerland and Communist Czechoslovakia and Poland—proposed that it temporarily pull its teams out of both North and South Korea. The U.N. Command had charged that the Czech and Polish members connived with the North Korean Communists in trying to hide a Red buildup of troops and planes banned by the Korean armistice.

Girls to Name Governor

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Delegates to Arkansas Girls State at nearby Camp Robinson voted today for a governor.

Candidates are Mary Alice Melton of Jonesboro, nominated yesterday by the Nationalists, and Alice Rotherof of Camden, nominated by the Federalists.

Girls State is a week-long study in government for teen-aged girls. It is held under auspices of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Dissatisfied With Insurance Refunds

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—State Insurance Commissioner Harvey Combs today expressed dissatisfaction with the Service Fire Insurance Co.'s lack of progress in making refunds to Arkansas customers.

Service Fire a New York firm, is owned by Universal CIT, an automobile financing company. The insurance company overcharged some of its Arkansas customers by placing them in the wrong premium bracket.

The company reported to Combs that it had mailed 4,788 forms to policyholders to determine if they had been overcharged, and had refunded $48,000 to 1,635 persons. The Memphis office of the CIT said Service Fire had about 25,000 policies in the state.

Combs said in a letter to the insurance company that he is not pleased with the speed with which the forms are being mailed.

Admiral Joy Succumbs in San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Retired Adm. Charles Turner Joy, who headed the United Nations truce team for 11 months of tedious armistice negotiations with the Communists in Korea, died yesterday. He was 61.

Joy died in the naval hospital here. His widow Martha Ann said he had leukemia the past four years.

The admiral was commander of U.N. naval forces in the Korean War and in 1951 was named senior delegate of the U. N. Command delegation to the Korean armistice conference.

He asked to be relieved as chief negotiator on May 22, 1952, expressing distrust of the Chinese Communists but agreeing the talks were the desired course for the United Nations.

Late Joy declared in his book, "How Communists Negotiate," that the U.N. should not have accepted the Korean armistice. Instead, he said, the U. N. should have pursued victory in Korea.

His decorations included the Legion of Merit with three gold stars, the Army Distinguished Service Cross, the Navy and Army Distinguished Service Medals with Bronze Stars and Commander of the British Empire.

Funeral services with full military honors will be Wednesday at the U.S. Naval Academy, which he headed for two years after returning from Korea. Burial will be in the Naval Academy cemetery at Annapolis.

Besides his widow, Joy is survived by two sons, Lt. Charles Turner Joy Jr., USN, and Army Capt. David Duncan Joy, and a daughter, Miss Mary Martha Joy of San Francisco.

Born in St. Louis, Joy graduated from the Naval Academy in 1916. He retired in July 1954 after 40 years in the Navy, and made his home in nearby La Jolla.

During World War II he was commander of Cruiser Division 6, Amphibious Group 2 and Task Force 73.

Mrs. Broach Host to WSCS Circle 4
Circle No. 4 of the WSCS of the First Methodist Church met Monday June 4 at 2 p. m. in the home of Mrs. R. L. Broach. Mrs. Broach presided over the business session in the absence of the chairman, Mrs. L. B. Tooley.

Mrs. E. J. Whitman gave the chairman report and reported the pledge for the preceding year paid in full.
An inspiring devotion was given by Mrs. J. C. Carlton. Mrs. Broach led a program on the physical and spiritual need of stewardship followed by pledge led by Mrs. E. J. Whitman.

During the social hour the hostess served a frosty drink and cake to 8 members.

Children of the Confederacy Meet
Children of the Confederacy ended a two-day conference here Tuesday with a business meet and a visit to the old State Capitol building at Washington.

Miss Carolyn Strong, state president of the Arkansas division presided at the business meet in which new officers were elected and the 1937 convention was awarded to West Memphis.

Following the business the group visited Washington where they enjoyed a picnic lunch served by members of the Pat Cleburne Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Principal speaker for the occasion was John P. Vosey, local attorney.

Coming and Going
Visiting the Grady Burton's of the past week were the D. E. Yorks of Memphis.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smittle, Doyle and Nita, and Mrs. Gertrude Butler of Bodcaw were weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burrell Smittle in Fayetteville and attended graduation exercises where Burrell received his Science degree in Entomology.

Cites 'Bell for Adono' as Disappointing

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP)—The production of "A Bell for Adono" on "Ford Star Jubilee" (CBS-TV) raised an interesting question on what might be called the laws of contraction and expansion of television drama.
To begin with, John Hersey wrote an excellent, perceptively constructed novel. There followed a play and a movie based on the book. These many years later, when television decided to present it, some people obviously concluded it needed a fresh twist.
Well, twist her they did. The twister in last Saturday night's production was to make it a drama with music or a musical drama—but definitely not a plain old musical. Possibly I'm wrong about this, but it seems to me that in a musical the music somehow advances the action while in a musical drama all action grinds to a halt which somebody sings a song.
Arthur Schwartz, doubling in brass as producer of the show named with Howard Dietz to write the music. That the songs were not up to the usual Schwartz-Dietz standard is not the basic reason why "A Bell for Adono" was a disappointment. Neither can it be found simply by rapping that first-rate actor, Barry Sullivan, for playing the leading role of Major Joppolo so fast and tautly. Nor can the cause of disappointment be traced by delaboring the beautiful Italian star, Anna Maria Alberghe, for being largely decorative.

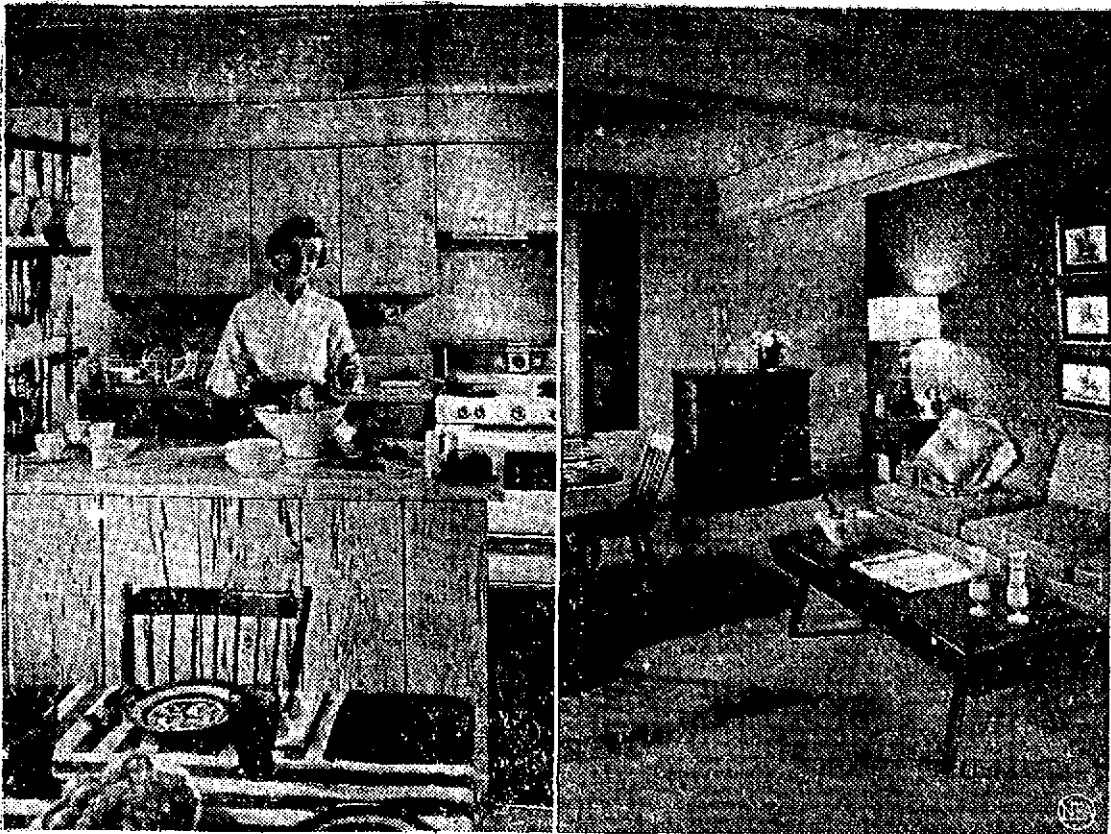

The fault, I believe, lies in the basic concept and structure of "A Bell for Adono" as it came to the home screen. It's a fault one can often find with television adaptations of excellent novels and plays.
The playing time was short enough to begin with—90 minutes, theoretically. Subtract time for too lengthy commercials and you have even less. The basic structural problem, then, was one of contraction. Not content with having the problem of expansion—by making it a musical drama, Heaven knows plays and novels are more delicately constructed forms than paper bags, but in one scene the same laws prevail. Try to expand and contract one at the same time and the result is shapeless indec.

U. S. Cool to Russian Sign of Friendship

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Although the Soviet leadership says Russia is "ready" for getting together with the United States, the Eisenhower administration shows no signs of either pushing for it or being ready.
There is no sign it had worked out any policy for handling the new Soviet tactics of soft talk and friendly gestures which, if pursued long enough, may weaken this country's world leadership and its ties with its allies.
This country was shocked this week to read Communist party boss Khrushchev's speech on Stalin's monstrous murders, particularly since Khrushchev and the other Soviet leaders were Stalin's co-workers.
The question—how could anyone deal with these leaders—is a natural reaction to the speech. But either this country works out peaceful coexistence with Russia or the two nations must stay mightily armed against each other indefinitely.
So far as can be seen at this point the United States is merely reacting to Russian actions. President Eisenhower at yesterday's news conference indicated this country would not take the initiative on exchanging official visits.
In this election year it is possible the administration might get some sour reaction in this country if it stopped stiff-arming the Russians. Some of Eisenhower's Republicans have publicly objected to exchanging official visits.
But, to show that the elections and his own candidacy for president are not taking up much of his time, Eisenhower gave this reply when asked if he thought he was in for a tough battle to be re-elected:
"Will you take an honest answer? I haven't thought a single thing about it. I am too busy."
In Moscow yesterday Khrushchev talked to an American, John A. Kennedy, publisher of the Sioux Falls (N.D.) Daily Argus Leader, who, after a month in Russia, told Khrushchev: "Our countries can and must get together."
"We believe that too, and we are ready," Khrushchev said.
This is an example of Eisenhower's thinking, carefully avoided.

DOROTHY DIX

In-Law Problem Solved Both Stubborn Allergic To Housework

Dear Dorothy Dix: A problem that keeps popping up in your column is that of the second wife who resents comparison by in-laws, wife number one. Perhaps my experience will help them.

The first wife in this case is Rose, the first wife; Sylvia, my sister-in-law, and Andy, my husband. After Rose's death, Andy moved in with ing taking the initiative, on Russian gestures toward an exchange of official visitors:

Recently the Russians invited Gen. Nathan Twining, Air Force chief of staff, to Moscow to watch the Soviet celebration of Aviation Day. After much discussion within the administration, Eisenhower said Twining could go.

Asked at his news conference if he would reciprocate by inviting the Russian air force chief to this country, Eisenhower said: "If we have any indication that he would like to come, he will be welcome to exactly the same kind of things here that Gen. Twining saw over there."

But when asked if he would invite his World War II friend, Marshal Georgi Zhukov, Soviet defense chief, to Washington, Eisenhower replied: "Well, I don't know that there will be any invitation extended at all. As I say, anything that would be done would be on a completely reciprocal basis." Then he added that if the Russians asked Secretary of Defense Wilson to Moscow, Zhukov would be invited here.

Sylvia, a well-to-do widow. Two years later I married him. Andy and I moved into our own home, where Sylvia was a constant visitor. Needless to say, she didn't take to me. From the beginning she kept up the refrain, Rose did this, Rose did that, Rose could create a beautiful dress from an old sheet, Rose's hospitality was famous, etc., etc.

Accidentally I hit on the solution. I said something nice about Rose. It was merely that I had heard from so many people what a sweet disposition she had. Sylvia was stomped.

From then on, I took each and every occasion to sing Rose's praises. I expounded on her sweet disposition, her ability to save, her help to Andy. What I didn't know, I made up. The topic soon bored Sylvia, so now I hear no more about my predecessor. I now live my own life in peace.

Dear Reader: Wise, resourceful woman, Andy must be a husband doubly blessed; he has beautiful memories of his first wife, and blissful living with the second. I pass your advice along, and am sure it will be clipped by many a second wife whose in-laws haven't gotten around to accepting her.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I am 16 and go steady with Marvin, who is the same age, a very nice boy. Our only trouble is that we're both stubborn and want things our own way. He seems to think only of himself. How can I teach him a lesson so he'll think of others?

Dear Myrtle: And whom do you think about? Sixteen is rather an egotistical age, but some consideration for others should be in evidence. Suppose you begin by showing Marvin a good example; if that doesn't work, show him the door.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My niece is 17 and, although smart in her schoolwork, she's lazy as can be around the house. She throws clothes around, scatters books and magazines; in fact, my sister has to do everything but put food in her mouth. She's dating a man of 31 who is a farmer. He tells my niece he expects her to help on the farm, doing outside chores as well as housework and cooking. Of course, she assures him she's perfectly capable of all this. What chance of a happy marriage do they have?

Dear Shirley: Whether the future could be happy or no, wedding plans would definitely fade away if the farmer knew how housework disagrees with your niece. Seeing is believing. Suggest that your sister invite him for supper as a surprise to her daughter. One glimpse of the girl surrounded by disorder and disorganization will unclinch the marriage deal.

Dear 'Dorothy Dix: I have a friend who worries me. She is married, a very beautiful woman, but an incorrigible flirt. How can she be persuaded to change her ways and become a homebody?

Dear Alice B: This is no job for a friend. Interference from you will certainly be misconstrued. The lady's husband must call a change of tune — if he wants new music. Perhaps he loves his glamorous bride as she is.

"There are almost unlimited scientific and technological reasons why we must launch an instrumented satellite into an orbit followed by manned satellites and... interplanetary travel."

MOSCOW—Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan, on President Eisenhower's proposal that Russian Defense Minister Georgi Zhukov visit the United States:

"I'm for it. I'm a businessman and in business there's always an exchange. But in certain cases I am ready to forego barter."

NEW YORK—Individualist Architect Frank Lloyd Wright, on how he fought 12 years to get the city to allow construction of modern-style, Wright-designed Guggenheim museum of art building:

Thought For The Day

Kind words produce their own image in men's souls; and a beautiful image it is. They soothe and quiet and comfort the hearer. They shame him out of his sour, morose, unkind feelings. We have not yet begun to use kind words in such abundance as they ought to be used. — Pascal said it.

Calendar Of Events

There will be a call meeting of the Anna P. Strong Club held in the home of Mrs. W. V. Rutherford Friday, June 8, at 7 p. m. All members are requested to be present.

Change Of Time For Club Meeting

The Altar Guild Club of BeBee Memorial C. M. E. Church will meet Sunday, June 10, at 5 p. m. instead of 4 p. m. as previously scheduled. The meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Carney Hamilton.

Cemetery Committee Meets

The Cemetery Committee of Emmet, Ark., met at St. Paul Baptist Church, Monday night, June 4. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mr. Joe Vanhook; Sec'y, Mr. H. T. Taylor; Treasurer, Messrs. Wm. Muldrow, Sylvester Lawson, Oscar Stewart; Sexton, Mr. Dan Pennington.

The next meeting will be held Monday, June 18. All interested persons are urged to be present.

Funeral Service

Funeral service for Mr. Hamp Muldrow, age 87, who died in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Scott, will be held at the Church Hill C. M. E. Church, McNab, Ark., Saturday, June 9, 1956.

Mr. Muldrow was the father of Mrs. Arletta Scott.

Smith Funeral Home of Stamps, Ark., is in charge of service.

Adults Take Over Inspirational Hour

Mrs. Hester Witherspoon will again be the master of ceremonies for the Inspirational Hour program this Saturday night from 7 to 8 p. m. and the program will be broadcast from the BeBee C. M. E. Church auditorium as usual. Mrs. Carney Hamilton will read the scripture lesson, followed with prayer by Mrs. Jessie Hamilton. Mrs. Mannie Douglas will read one of her original poems.

The Lonoke Baptist Church along with the Rising Star Baptist Choirs will render most of the music for the Saturday night broadcast. Mr. Charley English and Mr. C. G. Carmichael will be the two soloists appearing on the program. It is hoped that the adults will turn out in large numbers as the youths usually do. It is important that the audience be seated in the auditorium by 7 p. m. when the program goes on the air.

Baptizing At Hicks Pond Sunday

Due to the rain last Sunday the old fashion out door baptizing at the Hicks pond north of the city was postponed. But if it doesn't rain the baptizing will be held this Sunday June 10th at 5 p. m. announced this week by Rev. C. S. Stearns, pastor of the BeBee C. M. E. Church. Persons wishing to be baptized by Emerson are asked to call Mrs. Effie George, church conference secretary and list your name and sex. No one will be accepted at the pool Sunday unless your name has been listed for the baptizing. The general public is invited to witness this great spiritual feast. The BeBee Church is rejoicing over the many new members joining the church and candidates for Baptism.

Snead Favored in Palm Beach Play

By STEVE SNIDR
NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y. (UP) — Slammin' Sam Snead, a run-away winner the last two years, was favored today to score his fifth victory in the annual Palm Beach Round Robin golf championship as he opened defense of his crown against a blue ribbon field of 15 rivals.

Fitted against the Slammin' in the 90-hole test were some of the nation's top money winners but the man who worried him most was 49-year-old Henry Cotton of England, three-time British Open

Junior Team to Bradley Friday Night

The Junior American Legion team, the only Legion team here this season, will play Friday night. The Pony loop All-Stars play at 4 p. m. and the Legion at 7:45.

Sponsors of the team are Hope Star, Citizens Bank, Rotary Club and Coca Cola Co.

Boyd Wins in 10th Over Milo Savage

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
CHICAGO (U) — Gangly Bobby Boyd of Chicago has made a strong pitch for a chance at Sugar Ray Robinson's middleweight crown—but he is finding the line forms on the right.

Boyd, 22, won his ninth straight victory last night at Chicago Stadium.

He scored a 10th-round TKO over 30-year-old Milo Savage, who was the last fighter to defeat Boyd. That was on April 18, 1955.

But revenge lacked some of the sting. The squatly Savage of Salt Lake City, was wrestled out of the ring and fell in a heap on the arena floor in the fourth round.

By the eighth, he seemed to be favoring his left leg. In the ninth he slipped once and then folded again for what passed as an official knockdown. In the 10th and final round, Boyd landed sharp right to the head and Savage buckled to the canvas.

He was on his feet almost immediately but the bout was stopped after 27 seconds. Later, Savage's manager Jack McCarthy said he had motioned to Referee Joey White to stop it.

"Savage seemed like he was getting paralyzed and was complaining of his back hurting," said McCarthy. "There was no use for him to continue and maybe get killed."

The downhearted Savage said he couldn't pivot with his left leg. The report by the Illinois Athletic Commission's physician, John Pribble, was that the Utah aster either had bruised or fractured a floating rib in the fall from the ring apron.

Boyd's manager Bernie Glickman could talk only of getting a chance at Robinson.

"Boyd now is ready—and he is as strong as an ox," said Glickman. "We want Robinson."

Robinson, however, looks as if he either will meet Art Aragon king now on a spectacular comeback.

Vols in 3rd Place in the Southern

By The Associated Press

The big bats of the Brown boys — Country and Tom — had Nashville's Vols celebrating their rise to third place in the Southern Association today.

The Browns provided the power and John Brechin delivered the pitching to give Nashville a 4-3 victory over Little Rock and Marvin Rotblatt. With Memphis and Atlanta losing one-run decisions — the Crickets to Chattanooga 3-2 and the Crackers to Mobile 5-4, the victory enabled the Vols to climb two runs up the standings ladder.

League-leading Birmingham snapped back from its twinbill loss the night before and plastered New Orleans 6-1 to maintain a 4 1/2 game bluge over Mobile.

So the Pittsburgh Pirates win five of seven and Cincinnati wins five of six and St. Louis takes four of five. But how about those Brooklyn? They win four straight the hard way—with Roy Campanella in a slump.

Campy, three times the National League's most valuable player, is hitting .230, without a home run since May 3, no extra base hit since May 15 and no run batted in since May 22. This can't be what the world champions had in mind when they made him the highest paid Dodger yet with a $42,500 contract.

What's more, the big catcher isn't alone. Duke Snider, at .305, and Randy Jackson, at .351, are the only Brook regulars hitting over .300. And Jackson just made the first string six days ago, taking over third base from Jackie Robinson (.228).

What's the answer? Pitching. The Dodgers made a sweep of a three-game set at Milwaukee last night with Don Newcombe's five-hitter beating the Braves 5-2. Milwaukee, losing six of seven, had only 10 hits in the series as the Dodgers got three complete games from their pitching staff.

within which marriages are prohibited. India expressly forbids a man to marry his great-grandmother.

Whites are barred from marrying Negroes in more than half the states of the United States: Mongolians in 11; Malaysians in 6; American Indians in 4. Whites may not marry Koreans in South Dakota, or Hindus in Arizona.

Sweden allows the marriage of prisoners. Pakistan forbids the marriage of Shia-Moslem pilgrims who have entered the sacred territory of Mecca.

Pakistan law also says a man who has already divorced his wife nine times may not remarry her. In Ontario, Canada, a clergyman can be fined $500 and jailed for a year if he marries a man and woman who are drunk.

In India, a Hindu or Parsee can get a divorce if his spouse becomes a convert to another religion. In Florida, a divorce may be granted for "an ungovernable temper" in Rhode Island for "wickedness."

France penalizes the sale of contraceptives with prison terms up to three years. Eight states in the United States also forbid their sale. Connecticut forbids their use. But Alabama, Florida, South Carolina and Virginia finance birth-control programs.

A woman who aborts her unborn child can get three months in jail, or less, in Denmark. A woman who merely tries to do so can get life in prison in England, Wales and Scotland.

Twenty-six states of the United States enforce sterilization of mental defectives to keep them from passing on their fallings to children. Some also sterilize epileptics, syphilitics, sex perverts and habitual criminals. Minnesota and Vermont have laws for voluntary sterilization. In Finland, Denmark and Sweden, dangerous sex fiends may be castrated by court order.

The information in the report covers legislation in force in late 1951. The French National Institute of Demographic Studies spent years collecting it. Fowler V. Harper, Yale University law professor, prepared most of the material on the United States.

onstrated violently last March over another issue—the Communist collective leadership's decision to downgrade the memory of Stalin, who was born in Gori, near Tiflis, in 1879.

Reliable sources estimated that up to 100 Georgians were killed in the riots last March 9 when troops opened fire on waves of pro-Stalin demonstrators who tried to storm the Tiflis post office.

The trouble started March 5, the third anniversary of Stalin's death, when Georgians poured into Tiflis to hold a quiet memorial service. However, because of the bitter speech at the 20th Soviet Communist Party Congress in Moscow in February in which Nikita Khrushchev violently denounced Stalin, there was considerable confusion.

Propagandists had been sent into Georgia to spread the new party line vilifying Stalin. But, caught between the people's desire to honor their native son and orders from Moscow not to permit any homage to the dead dictator, officials hesitated and the crowds grew in number.

NOBODY ALLOWED TO DIE—In San Francisco, Calif., pickets of the Professional Embalmers Union, clad in their formal funeral attire, walk the beat in front of a funeral parlor. Nineteen other mortuaries in the area united in the lockout. At the same time, the Cemetery Workers Union was also on strike.

DINNER FOR TWO—Opera and concert soprano Charlene Chapman shares a tidbit with Musetta, a pet ocelot, in her Poundridge, N. Y., home. Musetta, named for a character in "La Boheme," is one of a small zoo in Charlene's home. She owns five other animals: a boxer dog, a macaw, a cheetah, a monkey and a kinkajou.

Stevenson Still Lacks Enough Votes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thirty-eight states, including all those selecting by primaries, have now chosen Democratic National Convention delegates. They will cast 1,108 votes.

With 686 1/2 convention votes needed for a presidential nomination out of a total vote of 1,372, the latest Associated Press tabulation of pledged votes and first ballot preferences expressed in polls showed today:

Adlai Stevenson	266
Estes Kefauver	169
Others	306
Uncommitted	307
Total	1,108

The "others" column covers 11 individuals, the five top men being Gov. Averell Harriman, 93, including 80 won in New York Tuesday; Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, 56 1/2; Gov. Frank Lausche of Ohio, 54; Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri, 48; and Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, 44.

Ten states and three territories still must name delegates with 252 votes. New York also has delegates - at large with 12 votes yet to select. Even if all the remaining 264 votes went to Stevenson he still would be far from a majority. His supporters, as well as Harriman backers, see prospects for picking up many more votes for their candidates in the now uncommitted column.

Negro Wedding in White Church

MEMPHIS (AP) — Because Negro Episcopalians here are temporarily without a church, a Negro couple was married in fashionable St. Mary's white Episcopal Cathedral last night.

The newlyweds are L. Alex Wilson, editor of the Tri-State Defender, Negro weekly newspaper, and Miss Emogene A. Watkins.

Permission to hold the ceremony in the white church was granted because Emmanuel Episcopal (Negro) Church is being rebuilt. It was performed by Emmanuel's rector.

INJURIE FATAL — A 77-year-old pedestrian died last night after being struck by a truck on Highway 21 about 7 1/2 miles north of Berryville.

State Police said the victim was Charley Cox of Route 4, Berryville. They identified the truck driver as Sammy Smith of Berryville.

The firefly isn't a fly, but a beetle. It has two pairs of wings, the forward pair stiff and useless in flight.

non-strategic goods. The newspaper was commenting on Britain's easing of the ban on colonial trading in non-strategic goods with Red China.

"The pressure in Japan for relaxing the restrictions, already considerable, is bound to become much stronger now..." the Times said.

TOYO. (UP) — The national police board reported today that 25,900 government officials and employees were arrested last year on charges ranging from embezzlement to bribe taking.

Around The World

LONDON. (UP) — Britain's great naval base at historic Scapa Flow is being abandoned to save money.

The base, made famous in the first world war when the Germans scuttled their grand fleet in its harbor, will be sacrificed in the government's campaign to reduce defense costs.

The decision was disclosed yesterday in a letter from the civil lord of the admiralty, Simon Wingfield Digby, to Joe Grimond, Liberal member of parliament from Orkney and Shetland.

Scapa Flow is located in the rugged Orkneys off the northern tip of Scotland.

Only an oil field depot will remain. Other installations will be shut down.

Digby's letter said "we no longer see sufficient use for the installations, either in peace or war, to justify the expense of their retention."

Other famed bases may be closed for the same reasons.

Cabinet pressure has been put on all the services to whittle away units not needed in the hydrogen-bomb age.

The government promised in its April budget to reduce state spending by $280 million.

Scapa was used extensively in the last war but has been of little use since. Royal Navy ships now go to Rosyth, also in Scotland.

TOKYO. (UP) — The newspaper Nippon Times predicted today the United States may relax its ban against trade with Communist China.

"Up until now the United States has stood firm against any relaxation, but there are indications that this policy may be revised," the English-language newspaper said.

"No definite decision is likely from Washington until after the presidential elections in the fall. In the meantime, America is reported to be prepared to acquiesce in trade with the Reds in

Some Missing From Attack on Stalin

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. officials believe a big chunk is missing from the version of Nikita Khrushchev's attack on Joseph Stalin which the State Department released this week.

American diplomats and agents abroad have been ordered to hunt for any missing portion — which may run between 10,000 and 15,000 words — and get it to Washington at once if they find it. The search has been assigned the highest priority.

What is missing, authorities here feel, is a long section believed to have dealt with a denunciation of Stalin's conduct of foreign affairs.

It could be especially significant for the free nations to know what Communist party boss Khrushchev said about these matters because it would indicate Khrushchev's own thinking.

PRESCOTT NEWS

Mrs. Bill Ghormley Complimented

Mrs. Bill Ghormley, a recent bride, was feted with a miscellaneous shower Thursday evening at Midway Church. Miss Peggy Cummings and Miss Margaret Spurred greeted the guest at the door and placed the gifts on the altar which was decorated with lovely arrangements of summer flowers. The honoree was presented a corsage of pink carnations by the hostess, Mrs. Ralph Dykes. Games were played with prizes won by Miss Helen McGuire, Mrs. Iris Gordon and Mrs. Ernest Avery. Miss Martha Grimes entertained with song and music while the bride opened the many lovely gifts. Mrs. Henry Shackelford and Miss Frances Avery presided at the punch bowl while Miss Virginia Nell Martin, Mrs. Charles Milroy, and Mrs. Mack Stockton served the delicious plate to the 50 guests that were present.

Ginny Gray Celebrate's Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Gray entertained with a swimming party on Saturday afternoon at the Presbyterian wading pool for the pleasure of their daughter, Kenny, on her sixth birthday. Refreshments were served from a table centered with a basket filled with garden flowers. The blue birthday cake was a replica of the swimming pool. Favors were animal blossoms and flying birds on a stick. The guest list included John and Kay Reynolds, Ellen and Anna Gordon, Marvanna Cunningham, Jimmy and Roscoe Franks, Paula Hiett, Cathy Bratton, Gilda Fay and Brenda Kay Hines, Ann Bolton, Ellen McRae, Charlotte Eastterling, Ronnie Vandiver, Bobby Crane, Betsy Jane McMahon, Diana, Vickie, Gloria and Sandra Rapp, Walter Nelson, Richard Grayson, Steve King, Cass Bensberg, Eddie Daniel, Marita Jane Bemis, Doug Gordon, Bob and Karen Ann Rouse, Blake Scott III, Phoebe Johnson, Bill Roberts and Edith Henley.

Genevieve King Married in Home Rite
Miss Genevieve King and Arvin Edgar Jones exchanged marriage vows Saturday afternoon at five o'clock in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Karl King, Jr., Mr. Jones is the son of Mrs. Rosalie Jones of Prescott and Firmin Jones of Little Rock. The rites were read by Rev. W. D. Golden in the presence of the immediate families before an altar marked with floor standards filled with Queen Anne's lace, fern and white gladioli. A five branch silver candelabra holding lighted white tapers and placed in a silver bowl of floating gardenias adorned a table. Queen Anne's lace and fern in a silver bowl and lighted white tapers in silver candle sticks topped the piano.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waist length dress of ice blue lace styled with a fitted long torso bodice and a round neckline outlined with lace medallions centered with rhinestones and featured a full skirt. A blue illusion veil fell from a blue lace bandeau encrusted with rhinestones. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias on a prayer-book.

As her sister's only attendant Mrs. Johnny Star of Little Rock wore a frock of pink lace with a basque waist and bouffant skirt. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations tied with blue ribbon. Larry Wahquist was best man.

At the reception held in the dining room, the bride's table was covered with a white satin damask cloth centered with a low arrangement of gardenias in a silver bowl illuminated by white tapers in six silver candlesticks placed in a semi-circle. The white wedding cake embossed with lilies of the valley was served by Mrs. James R. Bush, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Larry Wahquist presided at the punch bowl.

When the couple left for a short trip, the bride wore a brown linen suit with brown and white accessories. She pinned a gardenia corsage at her shoulder. They will reside at 404 West Main Street.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Perry Jones of Odessa, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Jones of Shreveport, La.; Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Stark and Mrs. James R. Bush of Little Rock.

AP&L to Refund to Customers

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas Power & Light Co., says it will cost $195,000 to carry out the refunding of around eight million dollars to its customers.

The eight million dollars represents a rate increase since July, 1954, which the Arkansas Supreme Court said AP&L wasn't entitled to.

The $195,000 cost estimate was contained in a refund plan which AP&L submitted to the Arkansas Public Service Commission yesterday.

Under usual procedure the cost will be deducted from the refund total.

PSC was asked to give formal approval to the procedure for making refunds outlined by April.

Dogs Putting the Bite on Postmen

By ROBERT F. COLL

WASHINGTON (UP) — The dog that nips the postman also puts the bite on us taxpayers' pocketbooks.

With this observation, Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield, a dog owner himself, yesterday convened a conference on how to get the mail safely past Fido's jaws.

He noted that dog bites waste "millions of the taxpayers' dollars annually" by disabling letter carriers and interfering with deliveries.

"In a sense," he said, "the dog is putting the bite on his master every time he nips a letter carrier."

Summerfield asked a group of postal officials and canine consultants, including a dog psychologist, how to lick the problem. Right off, the experts dug up a bone of contention.

Eugene J. Lyons, postal personnel chief, reported on field tests the department is conducting to find a way of discouraging dogs from attacking mailmen.

Among the possibilities being considered, he said, are chemical repellents, protective clothing, dog candy, water guns and "hot sticks." The latter two, he quickly explained, would be considered only "where milder methods fail."

The delegates firmly rejected the suggestion that letter carriers resort to chemical warfare.

William E. Buckley, president of the American Kennel Club, said flatly that chemical dog repellents are "not desirable." He said "extreme types" might incite rovers to further violence.

They finally agreed that education, both of owners and mailmen, is the answer to the biting issue.

In the view of the canine psychologist, going to the dogs might be the best method of getting the necessary education.

"The average pet owner," psychologist C. B. Harrison of New York said, "hasn't the mind to cope with the mind of the dog."

"People call me up and say, 'We know our dog is crazy,' but in 98 per cent of the cases there is nothing wrong with the dog — the owner is crazy."

Ex-Actress Joins Daughters in College

ASBURY PARK, N. J. (UP) — Former Actress Evelyn Venable, who went back to college to join her two daughters now in the honorary college queen of 1956.

Miss Venable, who left Vassar college in her teens to launch her movie career and star in Will Rogers' films, recently was awarded a Phi Beta Kappa Key at the University of California at Los Angeles.

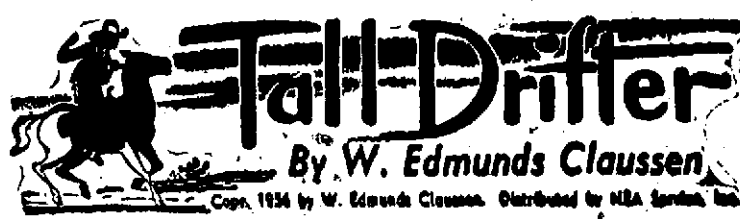

She will be invited to the annual national college queen grand finals in Asbury Park Sept. 8-10 to receive an honorary morarboard plaque for her scholastic accomplishments.

Miss Venable is the wife of Hollywood cameraman Hal Mohr.

STICK THIS IN YOUR TREE AND PIPE IT—It's not a pipe dream, but it is a length of pipe encased in a tree in St. Louis' Forest Park. No one quite knows which got there first—the pipe or the tree.

By W. EDMUNDS CLAUSSEN

THE STORY: although Emmett Cash tried to make an outlaw of Frank Ude, the tall drifter, parts company with Cash and rides to the Rafter C. This ranch is operated by Cash's half-sister Jean. Frank finds her breaking a horse.

CHAPTER XVI

She spoke a swift command and a kid appeared. He was no older than 16, with both sleeves of his hickory shirt spilt at the elbows. "This is Alex Jacobs," she said. "Alex, switch his saddle to the black." She turned to Frank. "There are only three hands. Tod Drury is far too old to be of use. You'll be foreman, if it means anything to you."

Her fear was forcing her to grasp at final straws. "My horses have been sold under Army contract—I'm to receive payment as I deliver. They like my hands, have the habit of wandering off. The last bunch was a few weeks ago — and they haven't yet shown up at Fort McHenry."

She was talking about the horses Emmett had stolen from her, then lost in the raid in the Signals. Norring had her horses hidden on a pasture lot, according to Emmett.

He asked quietly, "You looking for your horses around the hills?" "Never stopped riding, Frank. But they operate under a very smooth system. They see me coming miles away and move the horses to another valley. They're rough men, not likely to give you a fair chance—but of course you understand that."

"I understand," he answered. But he was thinking of the Cashtown sheriff and the shot which had unhorsed one of the possemen.

"Unless I'm very much mistaken," Jean said with considerable irony, "this isn't your first range fight. But the pay will have to wait until after we've delivered the horses."

He broke somewhat harshly into her words. "The pay can wait until I've earned it. You ought to have cattle on this range."

He caught her momentary annoyance that flashed across her face. He knew she had already gambled the beef, and lost it. She said "I like horses better."

"He shook his head. "Without cattle on that grass: somebody will move in on you."

"I know what kind of a fight I've got to make. It's not a comforting thought. Not with a kid and two men loyal because they loved my father, but too old for fighting now. I've got no right expecting you to come into it — you have no stake."

Grating wheels in the carriage lane swung her on her toes. The yard was darkening by the second and now her eyelids squinted down as she tried to recognize the two in the buggy. The one holding the reins she had expected. She tossed Frank a faint smile. "He's the last one of my hands—carried over from Dad's crew. He and Tod Drury. Tod's too old to be lured away from the Rafter by talk of wages, and Rickety—well, he wouldn't accept another outfit's pay either. Not even if somebody was crazy enough to make him an offer!"

Frank studied the two men on the seat closely. He had noticed the rig hitched before the store in Cashtown, deciding now Rickety had been left behind by Jean to fetch supplies. There was a saddled horse trailing on its reins, and Frank concluded the second man on the seat had overtaken the buggy and Rickety had invited him to share the seat.

Jean said, somewhat annoyed, "It's Steve Norring."

He watched Norring come down off the wagon seat; a tightly-knit, slim man in dark broadcloth. On the wagon's opposite side Rickety came down over the wheel in a series of jerks and spasms, a man bent nearly in half by rheumatics or some kindred ailment. Rickety had been aptly named.

Norrington smiled sharply across the yard. "Who is the man with you, Jean?"

Jean gave him a tantalizing sort of smile. "This is Frank Ude. I've hired him as my foreman."

Norrington drew a deep breath. Frank could see him fighting for a better hold over himself. For an instant the gambler's mask which his face held fell away. He stood before Frank revealed with considerably less stature.

"You can't do that, Jean," he murmured much more affably. "You know who this man is? He shot a horse from under Chantry's posse."

"Not quite, Frank put in mildly. "If you know who shot the posseman's horse why not tell her the truth?"

"You were riding beside him!" Norring argued. He was glaring at Frank now, his nostrils flaring with anger.

"He's still my foreman. Better not make any mistake about that, Steve."

Frank murmured, "Jean, if you'll step inside the house I'll throw Norring off Rafter C."

She shook her head stubbornly. Her gaze remained on Norring. "Steve go in the parlor. You'll find me ready to settle this, if that's what you want."

Norrington kept his glance on Frank, uncertainly. Jean unhitched the lead reins of Norring's black, looping them to a ringed post set in the yard beside the porch. She called across her shoulder to Frank, "Tod, will

Wants Truman as Vice President

LOS ANGELES (AP) — California Atty. Gen. Edmund G. Brown, who now heads the state's delegation to the Democratic nominating convention, suggests this ticket for the party next fall:

President, Adlai Stevenson; vice president, Harry Truman.

"Why not?" he said. "Truman has been wanting to get back to Washington, and I think he might just go for the idea."

He made his comment to a group of reporters as Stevenson claimed victory in yesterday's California primary.

throw something together at the cook shack."

It was her way of dismissing him and letting him know she meant to settle with Norring. (To Be Continued)

State Hospital Board to Take $5,000 Gift

LITTLE ROCK — The State Hospital Board of Control will meet here tomorrow to accept a contribution of $5,000 worth of wonder drugs from a pharmaceutical firm.

The meeting was announced today.

Joe Copeland, president of a CIO union local at the hospital, was fired yesterday by Supt. E. H. Crawfis. Board Chairman Olen Hendrix said "we will not concern ourselves with that situation tomorrow."

A regular meeting of the Board is scheduled next week. Hendrix said that a representative of the Smith, Kline and French Laboratories of Philadelphia — the contributing firm — would be here tomorrow, but would not be here next week.

"We need those drugs for the patients; we're out of money and can't buy and that's the reason we are anxious to get them immediately," Hendrix said.

The board chairman said that the group might discuss the employment of a farm manager to replace J. D. Hannah, one of about 10 top hospital officials who resigned during a controversy between hospital executives and Gov. Orval Faubus.

In reply to a question, Hendrix said that the Board would ignore a suggestion by State Sen. Q. Byrum Hurst of Hot Springs that the board dismiss Dr. Crawfis immediately to halt a division and dispute among hospital employees.

Marilyn Rents Attorney's House

LONDON (AP) — Patrick Cotes-Freedy, a lawyer, is renting his country house to Marilyn Monroe this summer.

"Miss Monroe must have privacy and all that," said Mrs. Cotes-Freedy. "Police have looked the house and the grounds over and they say Miss Monroe will have the seclusion we understand she seeks."

The film star plans to stay about four months here while making a movie with Sir Laurence Olivier.

Crawfis is scheduled to leave at the end of next week to take a similar position at a Cleveland, O., hospital.

Senate Also Okays Fred A. Seaton

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate today unanimously confirmed appointment of Fred A. Seaton to be secretary of the interior.

Both Democratic Leader Johnson of Texas, and Republican Leader of California, commended appointment of the Nebraska publisher, cattle raiser and former senator, and said they were happy to see a former colleague elevated to the Cabinet.

The action followed unanimous approval of Seaton by the Senate Interior Committee.

Russia Has Some of Best, and the Worst

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

The Soviet Union has H-bombs and a frightfully bad system of highways. It has superb planes and lags 25 years behind the United States in automotive production.

Russians pioneered soil study, and Soviet agriculture is in turmoil.

Russia produced top-notch scientists for two centuries, but the U.S.S.R. has a shortage of educated people.

The Soviet Union has a vast population as the Soviet Union and the United States enter a long economic-political contest in which communism hopes to pave the way to world domination.

Brilliant Soviet advances in modern techniques make up only half the picture. The other half keeps Soviet leaders on the edge of fear. The great basic contradiction is that even with great strength, the Soviet Union is weak and global war is unthinkable.

Russia, for example, has modern jet transports in operation. It can produce such things because it can assign top priorities in peacetime by edict and concentrate manpower, materials and capital. But at the same time it is neglecting sectors in which the West goes steadily forward.

The Soviet Union has awesome armed strength. It has no shortage of brains and materials for heavy industry, which produces for war. The Soviet bloc and China can present the lure of a vast market for free world nations hungry for trade. The Communist fifth column is in a position to capitalize on the postwar avalanche of nationalism and Western identification with colonialism. Moscow can order the export of whole factories and hordes of technicians to countries impatient

Stevenson Group Elated Over Win

CHICAGO (AP) — James A. Finnegan, campaign manager for Democratic presidential candidate Adlai Stevenson, today said Stevenson's victory in California's primary yesterday "shows again that he is the overwhelming popular choice of the Democratic voters in all sections of the country."

Finnegan said Stevenson's five consecutive victories in contested presidential primaries have "amply demonstrated he can fight and win." He said those who counted Stevenson out after his Minnesota defeat "just didn't know the courage of the man."

Drownings Slow Marine Recruiting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Marine officers attribute a sharp April drop in enlistments chiefly to raised Corps standards but acknowledge that another factor may be the drownings of six recruits on a forced night march.

The Marine Corps signed up 1,321 recruits in April — a figure nearly two thirds less than the average for the six preceding months.

to industrialize. But the Soviet Union also is weak. Staggering problems stand in the way of the Soviet global program.

The glaring weakness is the consumer economy. The Soviet consumer, cheated first by Stalin's hunger for industrial power and then by the war effort, is being put off again by the new long-term drive for economic supremacy.

Top Argentine Army Men Fired

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — President Pedro Aramburu's removal of the Argentine army's two top commanders was seen today as the opening move in a sweeping reorganization of government posts.

Informed sources said Aramburu wants to deflate the military influence, restore democracy and streamline the top-heavy bureaucracy inherited from former dictator Juan Peron.

Two generals who played key roles in the revolution that overthrew Peron lost their posts. They were Lt. Gen. Julio A. Lagos and Brig. Gen. Roberto Tomas Dalton. Maj. Gen. Francisco Jose Zarda succeeded Lagos as army commander in chief. Dalton, army chief of staff, was tapped to become ambassador to Peru.

Does Okay in Hollywood Selling Bikes

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Hans Ohrt says when he opened a bicycle shop in Beverly Hills, "I was voted the man least likely to succeed."

That was 20 years ago, and he's still doing a thriving business with such customers as Marilyn Monroe, Clark Gable and Maureen O'Sullivan's children. The latter alone are almost enough to keep him in business.

The secret of Ohrt's success may be his evangelistic conviction that everyone should bicycle. This zeal seems to rub off on others. When I saw Fess Parker recently, he spent many minutes expounding on the joys of cycling.

I seems that Fess returned from abroad after having tasted too much of European cooking. He dropped into Ohrt's shop to see about getting a bike to help remove the excess poundage. That is when it happened. Now Fess can be seen almost daily pedaling through the hills and down to the beach on 30-mile rides.

"I can drop five pounds on one trip," he enthused. "And it's got me in great shape. It's the best kind of exercise; like swimming, it uses every muscle."

Ohrt continued the pitch for cycling when I visited his shop.

"It's the finest exercise there is," he contended. "We got our biggest boost when the President's specialist, Dr. Paul Dudley White, came out with a statement that cycling will help prevent heart troubles."

"I think we're due for another big boom. This is an Olympic games year, and that always stimulates cycling. I think it's going to be a bad again. The last time was in the depression. First came miniature gift then bike riding."

Ohrt is ready for the boom. He's a big, hearty San Franciscan who has been cycling all his life. The national amateur champion in 1915, he turned pro soon afterward, came to Beverly Hills 20 years ago. Now 61, he continued to pedal around town, though he has lately given up his annual trek to palm Springs, 100 miles distant.

Future Prisoners May Earn Money

ST. LOUIS (AP) — An expert on prisons says it will become common practice someday for prisoners to earn enough in the penitentiary to support their families at home.

Isaac Gurman, executive director of the St. Louis Bureau for Men, said wages may also be large enough to permit a prisoner to pay back to the state a reasonable amount for board and room and to build a savings toward the time when he is released.

In an address to the Missouri Association for Social Welfare, Gurman suggested legislation compelling state agencies to purchase goods made at Missouri penitentiary.

Mindsentry Is Back in Prison

ROME (AP) — The official organ of Italian Catholic Action reported today that Josef Cardinal Mindsenty, Roman Catholic primate of Hungary, again has been jailed by Hungarian Communist authorities.

The newspaper "Il Quotidiano" said its information came from a reliable source. The publication said Cardinal Mindsenty was taken to Felsopeteny, a hamlet near Noglad, in northern Hungary, and "now is again in jail." It expressed belief he was taken there because he had refused to sign a statement recognizing progress made in recent years between the Hungarian state and the Roman Catholic Church.

Britons ife a Red So He Is Fired

LONDON (AP) — A British executive who says he has been branded a security risk because his wife once was a Communist is fighting for his $14,000-a-year job with Imperial Chemical Industries.

J. H. A. Lang, 46, said the British government has demanded his resignation. A spokesman for the giant chemical combine — which works on many secret government projects — said only that Lang had refused to resign and his dismissal was in the works. He is an assistant solicitor.

As a British army staff officer in World War II, Lang worked on security matters. He says there has been no suggestion that he himself is politically unreliable.

Mrs. Lang, 46, said she joined the Communist party in 1931 "when many people of my age did so...I finally left in 1951."

U. S. Short on Scientists

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Former President Herbert Hoover says the United States is "running into a famine of trained scientists and engineers" that is a "national failure."

The 81-year-old Hoover, an engineer before he was president, spoke at dedication of Herbert Hoover Junior High School, named in his honor, last night.

"I suggest that unless somebody attends to this job many of the wheels in the United States will some day stop turning," Hoover said.

He said some 30,000 engineers and scientists are graduated each year but "the country needs a minimum of 50,000 a year." He noted that Russia claims 85,500 graduates yearly.

As far as is known, there are no snakes in Ireland.

LOOT SHOPS

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP) — Sinhalese rioters looted shops owned by Tamil traders today as language riots erupted in Colombo for the second consecutive day.

Police fired on demonstrators who tried to wreck a truck carrying Tamil-language newspapers. Three persons were injured seriously.

Army units were called out to patrol the Pettah bazaar district of the city, but they could not cope with the looting in scattered side streets and alleys.

FILIPINOS WALK OUT — The Asian-African students conference went on today without the Philippine delegation, which stalked out in protest against Communist domination.

Guillermo C. de Vega, 24, led out his group in the climax of a six-day battle over Red moves to turn the meeting into a political arena.

BEER PAYS $1,024,733 INTEREST In Arkansas

When a small businessman needs money to expand, buy a home, or building, or discount bills for large orders, he borrows it. For this service he pays the going rate of interest. In 1955 Arkansas beer dealers paid $1,024,733 interest on notes and mortgages. In paying interest on money loaned them by their fellow Arkansans, the legal beer dealers of our State are helping contribute to its growth and progress.

IT'S SWITCHCRAFT — that's what it is!

You'll see when you try Buick's new Variable Pitch Dynaflo!

IT TAKES a new word to describe the magic at your command when you drive a '56 Buick — with the newest transmission of them all.

It's full power go-ahead on the instant. You can get where you were just looking in a shaved second's time — with the most modern and most thrilling surge of safety acceleration in the land today.

It's smoothness, too. Complete freedom from the "hump" and lag of gears shifting. Only with Dynaflo can you go winging away with so smooth a sweep.

And only with a '56 Buick can you enjoy Dynaflo's newest marvel. It's something the engineers call "double regeneration." Lets you start off like an Olympic sprinter, with the pedal pressed just an inch or less. (And driving that way, you get better gas mileage.)

There's more big news, too, that goes with this new Buick magic. And that covers a lot more than styling.

Sure — you'll like the graceful new beauty of the V-shaped prow and sweep-ahead look. And you'll like the extra room inside.

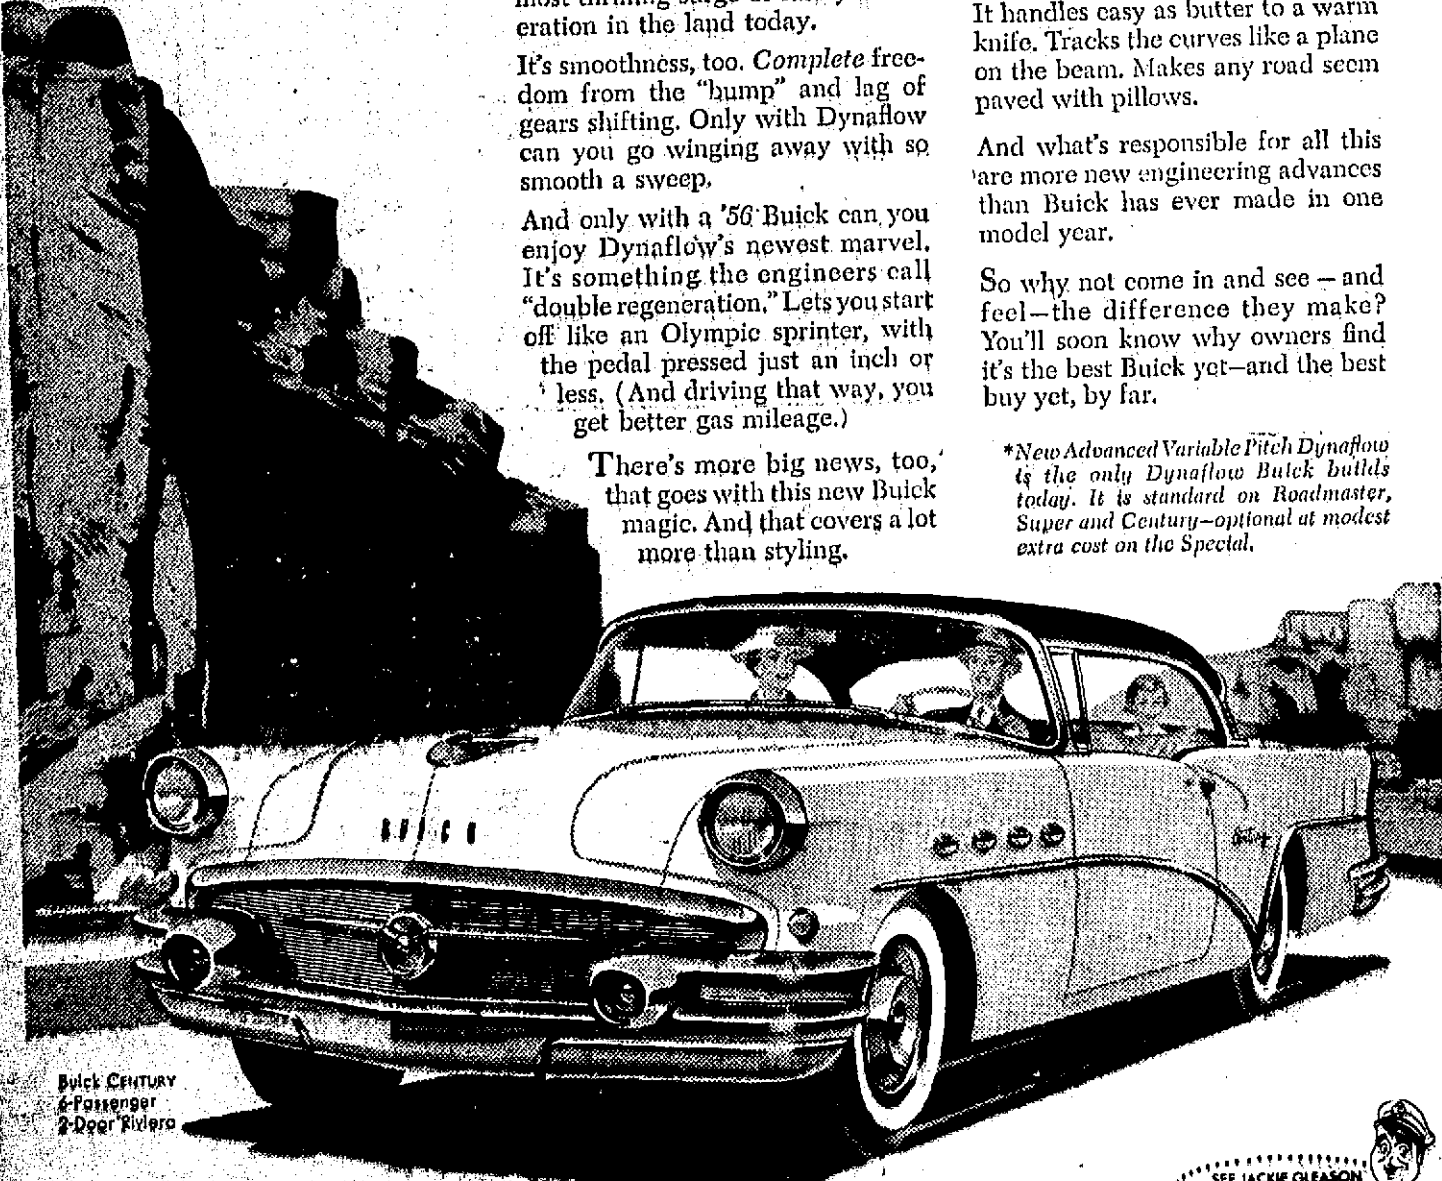

But as you drive you'll find that this Buick responds with the new might of a big, record-powered V8 engine of 322-cubic-inch heft.

It handles easy as butter to a warm knife. Tracks the curves like a plane on the beam. Makes any road seem paved with pillows.

And what's responsible for all this are more new engineering advances than Buick has ever made in one model year.

So why not come in and see — and feel — the difference they make? You'll soon know why owners find it's the best Buick yet — and the best buy yet, by far.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick built today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century — optional at modest extra cost on the Special.
